

Supporting Students' Basic Needs

Meeting students' immediate food needs

- All 23 campuses have a food pantry or food distribution program
- A majority of campuses offer meals through meal sharing or meal voucher programs
- A majority of campuses make fresh fruit and vegetables available to students
- Five campuses accept Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) with additional campuses in development

Providing students with short-term emergency housing

- More than two-thirds of CSU campuses offer on-campus emergency housing or vouchers for off-campus housing
- Four campuses provide assistance with long-term housing arrangements

Providing financial assistance for students in need

- A majority of campuses offer emergency grants or funds
- 14 campuses raise donations from the community specifically to support students' basic needs

Connecting students with resources

- All 23 campuses offer students CalFresh application assistance
- Nearly all campuses have websites that connect students with on- and off-campus resources
- All 23 campuses have administrators or staff who manage programs and connect students with resources
- 11 campuses have case managers or crisis response teams
- A majority of campuses work hand-in-hand with local food banks and other community organizations

Offering additional support

- 10 campuses provide clothing for students in need, including interview-appropriate attire
- Nine campuses host financial literacy workshops for students
- Seven campuses provide cooking classes and recipes to help students prepare healthy and inexpensive meal options

